

Chapter Four: What a House!

The new house Zack and his family will live in has an elevator. Tell how it is different than regular elevators and draw a picture of it below.

Tell about the elevator:

Draw a picture of it:

What is the Nelson's new address?

What did the house look like from the outside?

Who is Ira?

What is Ira going to call Zack?

Complete the chart below by finding the root (or base) word in each word found in chapter four.

Word	Base or Root Word directly parked electrical bubbling called

Chapter Four: What A House!

When Zack asks for a glass of orange juice, instead he gets spudsy melonade. Describe what it might be like below and draw a picture.

Spudsy Melonade might be like:

Draw a picture:

Match the character on the left with two things about them on the right.

A. Zack

gets called Miss by the elevator gets called Master by the elevator explains what IRA stands for

B. Dad

Is excited to see the new house

Is not excited about the new house at first

C. Cathy

gives the tour of the house

Use the pictures from the chapter to answer these questions.

(p.38) What do the windows in the house look like?

(p.43) What is something that this kitchen has that earthly kitchens also have?

(p.44) What is different about the way the twins look?

(p.48) Is Zack really inside the glass on this page? Why does it look like he is?