

Ch. 10 - An Anxious Night

How was Keith behaving strangely? _____

Why was the family of mice depending on Keith? _____

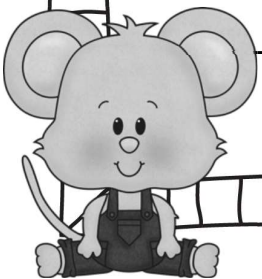

What was surprising about the dinner that Keith brought? _____

Why were there more cars in the parking lot than usual? _____

Why did the family not have any aspirin to give Keith? _____

Name one way the family tried to get aspirin. What happened? _____

If you were Ralph, how would you find an aspirin for Keith? _____

Ch. 10 - An Anxious Night

Look at the compound words from the story. Using the two smaller words to help you know the definition, cut and paste the correct word in the blanks.

The was carelessly cleaning the room with the vacuum.

Ralph wanted nothing more than to have a of his own.

The people would never suspect the in the wood to be the home of mice.

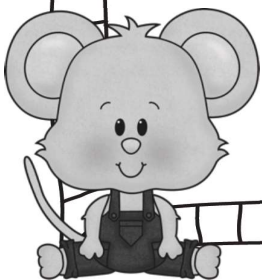

As the motorcycle zoomed off, Ralph gripped the tightly.

When the boy shines the in the wastebasket, he can see Ralph more clearly.

The boy splashed water from the onto his face.

The was the first predicament that Ralph found himself in.

No matter which way he went, Ralph couldn't find his way out of the .

© 2012 Jamie Rector

knothole

pillowcase

housekeeper

wastebasket

washbasin

handlebars

flashlight

motorcycle