

Ch. 4 - Keith

What was Keith actually looking for when he found Ralph? _____

_____

Why does Keith open the drawer of the bedside table and slam it shut?

_____

_____

What does Ralph wake up to? _____

_____

How does Keith position the flashlight so that he can see Ralph?

_____

_____

Why did Keith gently tip the wastebasket on its side? _____

_____

How does Ralph start the motorcycle and get it to run? _____

_____

Why did Keith whisper, "Gee, you're lucky,"? _____

_____

Ch. 4 - Keith

This book is full of compound sentences! Look at these simple sentences below. Combine them to make compound sentences.

The light was shining in Ralph's eyes. The boy moved the flashlight.

---

---

Ralph started to make the noise. The motorcycle started moving.

---

---

Ralph started the motorcycle. He rode in the moonlight. He was dizzy.

---

---

The room was quiet. Keith got out of bed. He fumbled in his suitcase.
He got out a flashlight.

---

---

